

Our Vision

To create and maintain an organization which distinguishes itself from its opposition in the market through:

1. Providing an exceptional tailor made service which operates on a win business policy.
2. Maintaining service levels that exceed the expectations of all clients.
3. Being a successful, reliable and hardworking company which offers good pay, job security and benefits to all staff members.
4. Maintaining a quality business that builds long term relationships with our clients.
5. To create jobs and assist in solving South Africa's unemployment problems.

Incrediclean aims to deliver a quality service, through the use of highly motivated professional staff, in order to meet the client's requirements while still maintaining optimum levels of growth and profitability. Incrediclean incorporates many varied disciplines whereby we endeavour to deliver the very best professional value for money services available in today's very competitive market.
